Key Information

World Mental Health Day:

On Thursday 10th October, it is World Mental Health Day. More children and young people than ever before are seeking help with their mental health.

By wearing yellow on World Mental Health Day, we want to show young people that they're not alone when it comes to their mental health. Any donations received will go towards #HelloYellow

Congratulations

Year 6 Meeting for Parents:

On Thursday 10th October, there will be a meeting in the Year 6 classroom at 2.50 for parents to come and have a chat about next year's trip to London. It will be an opportunity for parents to ask questions if they are unsure about allowing their child to go as well as an opportunity to explain what the children will do and see.

We look forward to seeing you there!
